It is notified for general information that the following regulations regarding the arrival of foreign subjects in Persian territory have been issued by the Persian Government :—

(1) "All foreign travellers entering Persian territory shall at the time of their entry, be in possession of passports duly vised by a Persian consular authority.

(2) The entry of foreign subjects who are not in possession of regular passports is entirely prohibited and frontier officials and police have orders to prevent the entry of such travellers.

(3) If any foreign subject enters Persian territory in contravention of the above regulations, he will be sent to the headquarters of the province concerned where he will be liable to the penalties prescribed for violation of the law. Thereafter, he may be allowed to reside n Persia under restriction or be sent to Tehran or deported from Persian territory as the authorities may think fit."

It is understood that any foreigner arriving in Persia without a passport or with a passport not conforming to the rules and orders of the country becomes liable to imprisonment varying from eight days to three months, or to the payment of a fine varying from six to fifty tomans. The Persian Government reserve the right to extradite the delinquent from Persian territory without trial.

As the Persian Government are unable to allow any relaxation of the above rules in the case of pilgrims to Persia and Iraq, the pilgrim passes issued in favour of such pilgrims should also in future bear a visa from the Persian consular authority at Bombay, Karachi or Quetta.
